A Time For Celebration

The year is nearly at an end and as the new owners of the Festival, it's been inspirational. Attendance has increased significantly from previous years and we have received countless messages on the positive changes introduced. Thank you to our exhibitors, visitors and supporters for contributing to the success of the Festivals. After all, these events are about people, their passion, attitude and faith.

Our vision remains to educate the community on the obvious and proven benefits of alternative health and healing practices. Not only this, but our desire is to create an event that radiates a feeling of connection, regardless of our different backgrounds, paths and beliefs.

In spreading the message, we are delighted to announce the return of the Festival to Brisbane and the addition of a second annual Festival to Melbourne in 2007. I have no doubt they will be embraced and be fantastic events.

Like the Festivals, you will also see our passionate team expanding. I am delighted to announce that Graeme Uthmeyer joined the business as a partner in July 2006. Graeme is particularly familiar with the MindBodySpirit Festival, having originally owned the Melbourne and Brisbane Festival prior to 2000.

With the "Festive Season" nearly upon us, it is also a time of celebration, generosity and giving as well as an opportunity to reflect on the year ahead. Be sure to visit our Wishing Tree and send your aspiration for peace, the environment or a loved one. You might also find that special gift with more than 180 exhibitors showing hundreds of unique and individual products and services.

Whether it be conquering stress in minutes, visiting one of our clairvoyants, experiencing the Crystal Temple, or discovering the latest in organic nutrition, you will emerge feeling informed, inspired and invigorated.

Best wishes,

Jane Ford

Festival Supporters:

As we near the end of another eventful year for the holistic industry, it's wonderful to be able to celebrate so much of what it has to offer among friends, both old and new, at the Sydney Mind Body Spirit Festival.

Perhaps as we face up to a long hot summer, it's easy to forget that Sydney really is that shining Emerald City. I, for one, love its enduring beauty and the vibe and energy that seems to resonate in this very special landscape. So Darling Harbour in November is a must on my yearly calendar!

Looking back over 2006, I've been struck by a newfound confidence in this industry and maybe that's a realisation of just how important it is to our health and happiness. It is all about community, about a sense of sharing new pathways to approach the challenges of the 21st century.

These challenges are real, but the holistic industry equips us to face them with new skills and greater understanding and with joy and love in our hearts. And a whole lot of new friends!

Congratulations, once again, to Jane and her team for running such great shows and for having the vision to open them up to a wider audience. We've enjoyed the journey with you!

NOVA Magazine is Australia's original free holistic journal now in its 13th year.

We launched our West edition back in March 1994 with our signature mix of independent feature articles, great columns, personal pieces and a real sense of community - all written around a monthly theme.

We brought that idea to Sydney in mid 2002 when we opened our Glebe office. And now NOVA has caught the imagination so much our East edition is currently 85,000 copies. That's a total of 135,000 copies in two separate editions, East and West, each month.
